

Kaw Nation Library & Learning Center

Its official, the Kaw Nation Library & Learning Center will have an “Open House” on Friday, August 6th, 2010, starting at 9:30 A.M., and everyone is invited to attend. If you are joining us for the Kaw Nation Intertribal Powwow that weekend, this would be an opportune time to visit this beautiful new facility, which has a variety of Native American books.

The Library & Learning Center will have five computers with Internet capabilities available for use by the community. If you are planning a meeting, a large conference room with multi-media technology is also available for use.

If anyone would like to make a donation of books, DVD's, music, video, or Children's fiction books, please contact Judith VanDuzor at 580-269-2738 or 580-269-2739 to make arrangements to drop off your donations.

Artists are encouraged to contact Judith about bringing their Native American artwork to be displayed and rotated out within the Center.
